

TREES ON FARMS

Farm field day

Planting trees on farms offers opportunities for farmers to diversify their income through revegetation, carbon benefits, increased agricultural productivity, and timber supply.

Learn how trees can benefit your farm and explore opportunities for agroforestry in livestock enterprises at this free farm field day event presented by the West Gippsland CMA and Maffra and Districts Landcare Network.

Speakers

Forestry expert Tim Fowler from Heartwood Unlimited will talk about plantation management and the work of his agroforestry company.

Callam Reynolds from Maffra and Districts Landcare Network will explain how the Victorian Trees on Farms Program works and the funding opportunities available for landholders.

Register at www.trybooking.com/DGKFH or contact Sam Shannon on 0409 944 114.
